with two different specific-purpose levies to support health and clean energy campaigns.

Commenting on the surplus cess collection, one of the two people cited above said: "In all probability, entire back-to-back loans along with interest would be serviced by December 2025 or max by January 2026. But the cess collection would continue for two more months, leaving some surplus. Utilisation of this surplus would require the Council's direction and approval."

According to official estimates, the compensation cess fund is expected to collect in total ₹10,27,966 crore since the GST regime was rolled out on July 1, 2017, a second person said. The actual collection of the levy was ₹7,61,215 crore as on July 2024. While the projected collection for the rest of the fiscal year (August, 2024 to March 2025) came to ₹99,501 crore, the mop up in FY26 (April 2025 to March 2026) is estimated at ₹1,67,250 crore, he said.

"States have already received their entire dues of ₹6,64,203 crore up to June 30, 2022 and no amount is pending for release. Liabilities due to the back-to-back loan amounted to ₹2,69,208 crore. Taking total outgo from the compensation fund to ₹9,33,411 crore, leaving an estimated surplus of ₹94,555 crore," he said.

At the time of launching the GST regime, the law assured states a 14% increase in their annual revenue for five years of the transition period from July 1, 2017 to June 30, 2022, and also guaranteed that their revenue shortfall, if any, would be made good through a compensation cess levied on luxury goods and sin products such as liquor, cigarettes, other tobacco products, aerated water, automobiles, and coal. The GST compensation cess was, however, extended from June 30, 2022 till March 31, 2026, only to retire debts taken on behalf of states to meet the revenue shortfall during the

A press release issued by the Indian side is "very instructive in how we look at the threat of terrorism", he said.

"The defence minister, in his address, called upon these 11 countries to come together to fight terrorism in all its forms and manifestations... He also reiterated the need to uphold that the perpetrators, organisers, financiers, sponsors of reprehensible acts of terrorism, including cross-border terrorism, need to be held accountable and brought to justice," Jaiswal said.

Singh further said SCO members must be "in lockstep in our endeavour in strengthening stability and security in our neighborhood", he added.

In his address, Singh said every act of terrorism was criminal and unjustifiable, and the bloc must unite in eliminating the menace for collective safety and security. He said India launched Operation Sindoor, exercising its right to defend itself against terrorism and pre-empt and deter further cross-border attacks.

During the Pahalgam terror attack, victims were shot after they were profiled on religious identity, and the The Resistance Front --- a proxy of UN-designated terror group Lashkar-e-Taiba (LeT) --- claimed responsibility for it, Singh said.

"The pattern of Pahalgam attack matches with LeT's previous terror attacks in India. India's zero tolerance for ter-by the region were related to peace, security and trust-deficit, with increasing radicalisation, extremism and terrorism being the root cause of these problems, Singh said.

"Peace and prosperity cannot co-exist with terrorism and proliferation of weapons of mass destruction in the hands of non-state actors and terror groups. Dealing with these challenges requires decisive action."

On May 15, Singh questioned if nuclear weapons were safe in Pakistan's control and custody and demanded that its arsenal be placed under the supervision of global nuclear watchdog International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA), calling the neighbour "irresponsible and rogue".

"It is imperative that those who sponsor, nurture and utilise terrorism for their narrow and selfish ends must bear the consequences. Some countries use cross-border terrorism as an instrument of policy and provide shelter to terrorists. There should be no place for such double standards. SCO should not hesitate to criticise such nations," Singh said in Qingdao.

Singh called for proactive steps to check the spread of radicalisation among the youth, acknowledging the significant role of the RATS (regional anti-terrorist structure --- a body under the SCO) mechanism in tackling the challenge. "The joint statement of the Council of SCO Heads of State on 'Countering Radicalisation leading to Terrorism, Separatism and Extremism' issued during India's chairmanship symbolises our shared commitment."

SCO is a 10-nation Eurasian security and political grouping whose members include China, Russia, India, Pakistan, and Iran. Their defence ministers' meeting was held as a precursor to the annual summit of its leaders set for the autumn.
